

LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

Postgraduate

OVERVIEW

The Leadership Scholarship recognises students who have demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities and a commitment to creating a positive impact in their workplace, community, and beyond. These scholarships celebrate individuals who show initiative, teamwork, innovation, and the ability to inspire and guide others.

By supporting emerging leaders, the scholarship aims to nurture current and future leaders within the hospitality, tourism and events industry.

Scholarship amounts vary depending on applicant experience to a maximum of 20% of tuition fees.

ELIGIBILITY

To be considered for the Leadership Scholarship, applicants must:

- Be an Australian citizen or permanent resident.
- Demonstrate a record of leadership experience through recognition, awards, community involvement, professional achievements, or extracurricular activities.
- Have applied for admission into the Master of Business in Global Hotel Leadership at one of The Hotel School Australia's (THSA) city campuses.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants must have applied to the course prior to submitting a scholarship application. To apply for the scholarship, email the below documentation to your Course Advisor.

1. Submit a written essay addressing the below scholarship question.
In 500–800 words, describe a leadership experience where you made a meaningful impact in your workplace. In your response, highlight the qualities you demonstrated and explain how this experience has shaped your future goals as a leader in the fields of hospitality, tourism, events, or management.
2. Attach any relevant supporting documentation to strengthen your application.
3. Attend a Scholarship Panel Interview – shortlisted applicants will be invited to an interview on campus or online.
