Community Service Scholarship — 2026

Thinking about studying abroad in Australia in 2026? Looking for a destination that offers the perfect mix of location, lifestyle, and community engagement?

Southern Cross University invites you to take part in something bigger - earn a tuition scholarship while showing your commitment to social impact.

What's the scholarship about?

The Community Service Scholarship rewards study abroad students with a creative and socially aware idea for giving back. Whether big or small, your project should show initiative, heart, and a commitment to making Southern Cross University and the local community a better place to live and study.

Details

- The Community Service Scholarship is valued at AUD $6,930
- A total of six scholarships are available. One scholarship is allocated for each intake (March, July, August) at our main campuses (Gold Coast or Lismore) plus one at The Hotel School (Sydney, Brisbane or Melbourne).
